

CITIES CLIMATE FINANCE LEADERSHIP ALLIANCE

Trillions of dollars will be required to help cities build the low-emissions, resilient infrastructure necessary to combat and react to climate change. Yet, finance for sustainable infrastructure in cities is a challenge with estimates showing only 10-30% of climate finance going to urban-focused projects.

Launched at the United Nations Secretary-General's Climate Summit in September 2014 and renewed at the United Nations Secretary-General's Climate Summit in September 2019, the Cities Climate Finance Leadership Alliance is the only multi-level and multi-stakeholder coalition aimed at closing the investment gap for urban subnational climate projects and infrastructure worldwide.

The Cities Climate Finance Leadership Alliance is a coalition of leaders committed to deploying finance for city-level climate action at scale by 2030.

70%

Population that will live in cities by 2050

90%

Cities that are on coasts

70%

$93tn

Sustainable infrastructure spending needed in the next 15 years

In its next phase, the Alliance aims to:

Build awareness of city finance needs and opportunities

Craft a strong global architecture to support measurement and evaluation

Identify existing solutions and gaps in city-level climate-related finance

Support new investment solutions that fill crucial gaps in cities climate finance

MEMBERS

By taking part in the Alliance, and by contributing expertise, access to networks, and funding, these leaders have committed to work together to bridge demand and supply for sustainable climate-friendly and resilient finance at the subnational level.
